

Hint

For each problem, talk through how you would solve the problem and how you know your solution is correct. Then use concrete objects to help you solve the problem. Next, make a math drawing and write a number sentence to represent the problem.