

Possible Solution

Maggie had 17 friends at her party. Some of them went outside to jump on the trampoline. Four friends were remaining in the room. How many friends went outside?

Make a math drawing and write a number sentence to show how you solved this problem.

17 friends - 4 friends = 13 friends

$$17 - 4 = 13$$

There were 13 friends outside.