Possible Solutions
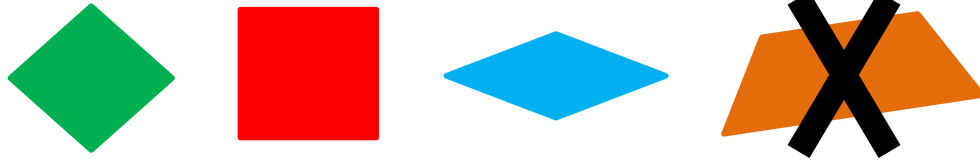

a) Cross off the shape that is NOT a rhombus.

b) Explain your thinking.

A rhombus is a closed figure that has 4 straight sides that are all equal in length. They are all closed figures, have 4 straight sides, and 4 vertices. The last figure only has 2 sides that look like they are equal in length so the last figure cannot be a rhombus.