

A ten frame is a pictorial model that helps students visualize or see numbers quickly and build number sense within the context of ten.

