When measuring length, a yardstick is typically used to represent one yard and is used to measure longer objects like this chalkboard.

The edge of 2 yardsticks equals the length of the chalkboard so the chalkboard is about 2 yards in length.