

An algorithm series of steps or a step-by-step routine often used for computing or calculating. It can be represented with numbers, symbols, pictures, models, or words.