

The denominator is the part of a fraction written below the fraction bar that tells the total number of equal parts in a whole or set.