

The numerator is the part of a fraction written above the fraction bar that tells the number of fractional parts specified or being considered.