

Equivalent fractions are fractions that have the same value. Comparisons of fractions are only valid when referring to the same size whole.