

Possible Solutions

The primary purposes of a financial institution such as a bank or credit union is to:

- Receive money through deposits
- Make loans or lines of credit
- Protect money according to federal and state laws
- Act as agents for people and businesses who want or need to borrow or lend money
- Have money available for people to access when needed through checking accounts, savings accounts, etc.