

Income is the amount of money or payment earned for completing work, services, or received through investments.