

A savings account is a usually a bank or credit union account that money is deposited into and earns interest so there will be more money in the future than was originally deposited.