

Hint

Think of a Venn diagram as if it were a family of hula hoops. You can get them in a variety of sizes. Some might be placed completely inside larger ones, while others might overlap just a little bit and share common space. Place the names of the quadrilaterals inside the "hula hoops" to show how they are related to each other.

