

Payroll tax is the tax or levy that is paid by a company based on the amount of money that the company spends paying all of its employees.