

A composite number is a whole number with more than two factors.