

Hint

This question is asking students why a credit report would be useful to BOTH parties involved, and not just one or the other. Therefore, they need to find similar reasons the borrower and lender might want to look at the report.