

Hint

In order to simplify the expression given in the problem, keep in mind the order of operations.

For this expression, start with an exponent if given one. Then multiply, not just solving left to right.

The situation asks for a simplified expression, not a numerical solution. Therefore, it is simplified to a one-step expression.