

Equivalent means to have the same value. Therefore, equivalent forms are those that represent the same amount.

These amounts are equivalent forms because they all represent the same amount.