

Possible Solution

Measure the width of a desk in your classroom with a strip of adding machine tape. Use pictures and words to explain how you did it.

I stretched out the adding machine paper along the front of the desk. I marked the beginning and end of the desk. The width of the desk was the length between my marks.