

Saving

Save means not spending your money now. Save means keeping your money and adding to it until you have enough money to get what you want.

Example: Putting your money in a piggy bank or in a savings account at the bank until you have enough money to get what you want.