

Hint

- Look at the scale on the bar graph and the corresponding length of each bar to determine the number of people at the movie each night.
- Look at the key to see how many people are represented by each happy face symbol to determine the number of people at the movie each night.