

Color tiles are a manipulative that can be used as a counter or math tool.

When measuring length, a color tile is typically used to represent an inch and is used to measure smaller objects like this pencil.

The edge of the pencil is about 6 color tiles so the length of the pencil is about 6 inches long.