

A quotient is the size or measure of each group or the number of groups when the dividend is divided by the divisor.

