

A financial institution is an establishment that focuses on dealing with financial transactions such as investments, loans, and deposits usually banks, credit unions, or other investment companies.