

Multiple representations refers to the use of a variety of forms to demonstrate the same relationship or situation. With this standard, students are being asked to use verbal descriptions, tables, graphs and even equations. The more that students are not only exposed to multiple representations, but consistently asked to use them in conjunction with each other, the deeper understanding students will have of a concept.